

Rotarians,

My sincere thanks to Rotarians and Lowndes Imagination Library Team Members for setting up the Rotary tent and the Imagination Library display and for signing up children at Juneteenth "Community Awareness" Day to receive Dolly Parton's Imagination Library books free monthly until their 5th birthdays.

Thank you to the set-up crew: Myrna Ballard, Steve Barnes, Angie Crawford, Mike Gudely, Jody Hall, Patricia Marks, and Bill Slaughter; to the sign-up crew: Joyce Evans, Lacie Guy, Susan Mullis, Charlie Oliver, Jane Osborn; and the take-down crew: Steve Barnes, Johnny and Susan Dukes, Mike Gudely, and Jody Hall.

Thanks also to Dr. Beverley Richardson-Blake and the Southside Library Boosters for organizing the 22nd annual Juneteenth "Community Awareness" Day.

Because of your efforts, we're able to enroll twenty more children in the Imagination Library program.

Thanks also to Johnny and Susan Dukes for a generous donation!

Today's Program

Rev. Bob Moon inducted as new Prez!

Born in India to missionary parents, Bob came back after high school to the US to attend Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky. Graduated from Asbury theological seminary. Got his Doctorate of Ministry in 2003. He has served churches in south Georgia and has been in Valdosta for five years. While living in Macon, he joined the Macon Rotary Club where he was a member of the Board and served as Sergeant At Arms. He chose that club in Macon because it was the first to open its doors to Jews, African-Americans, and women. He joined the Valdosta Rotary Club upon moving here.
