Today's Program:

District Governor, Ted Thompson

A native of central Florida, Ted joined the U.S Army and served for 3 years. He and his wife Charolette then started a wholesale flowering plant nursery. In 2005 they retired in Sandersonville, Ga where they joined Rotary and have been very active members ever since. Ted is a Will Watt Fellow, Multi Paul Harris Fellow, a Benefactor, and a Rotary Foundation Sustaining Member. Charolette is a Paul Harris Fellow and both are major donors and members of the Bequest Society.

Today's Program:

Today marks three special celebrations for Joyce Aigen.

First, Joyce marks this week as the 25th anniversary of her being in the first group of three women to join our Rotary Club. Of the three, Joyce is the lone one who remains active today.

Second, she is presenting her granddaughter, Hailee Jewell Hathcock, with a Paul Harris Fellow.

Third, Joyce's husband, George, is celebrating his birthday and also the recognition of his being placed in the Library of Congress record as one of the liberators of Dachau.

Recent Programs: September 24, 2014

We were excited to hear from Beth Shiroishi, President of AT&T Georgia and to welcome Courtney Brinson from AT&T Valdosta. We learned that every 1 out of 3 people are fully wireless when it comes to their phones; only a third of people still use traditional phone lines.

We also learned that 90 percent of adults own cell phones and 58 percent of those are smartphones. Because of smartphones being so popular, video is taking over the mobile world. Customers are even watching television on their phones now. For this reason there is a potential merger in the future with AT&T and DirectTV to bring better and faster service to their customers. Technology is constantly changing and evolving so AT&T is always upgrading in order to keep up.
