Today's Program:

Dr. William “Billy” Tidmore was born in Athens and grew up in Albany. He then attended Emory University, School of Medicine and did his residency at John Hopkins Hospital where he became the Associate Chief of Service. Dr. Tidmore returned to Valdosta in 1996 to start his practice in rheumatology and internal medicine.

Billy is married to Dr. Jennifer Lawrence who joined him to form the Valdosta Specialty Clinic. The couple has two children, Josie and George.

Dr. Tidmore, a Paul Harris Fellow, has a special interest in Rotary's commitment to eradicate polio and has designated his foundation contributions to RI's PolioPlus program.

Recent Programs: October 29, 2014

Blake Pearce, Dean of College of the Arts at Valdosta State joined us last week for an update on the many programs the College of Arts offers. He informed us that 10% of the students at VSU are in the College of Arts, which includes: Art, Theater and Dance, Music, Speech Communication, Mass Media and Interior Design.

To keep up-to-date on the news and events of the programs visit: <http://blog.valdosta.edu/coa/> or see the calendar at: <http://www.valdosta.edu/colleges/arts/>
