Brad Lawson— Georgia Christian School

Even though its been a few weeks since our last meeting, lets not forget about the great presentation from Brad Lawson, President of Georgia Christian School. He was excited to tell us the School's impact on the community, nation, and the world. The difference in this school from others is: there is daily bible instruction, Christian values (embody service above self), the gospel is taken around the world, and the students are challenged academically and prepared for their futures. This year the school has grown by 25% and there are many more excited changes to come. Its great seeing these students every week and learning more about them and Georgia Christian School.
